Chancery Causes: James Sargent vs. Minnie D Sargeant

Dean, Bowman, Sargent

CA-Divorce

T-Vices

Migration

To the Hon. N. A. W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia:

Humbly complaining, Your orator, James Sargeant of the county of Lee and State of Virginia respectfully shows unto the court, That he is now, and has been for more than one year last past, a resident of said county and State.

Your orator further shows that on or about the - day of June, 1898, at Beck Springs in the aforesaid county and State, your orator was duly and legally married to Minnie Sargeant, the defendant herein, by Rev. Arthur Ely and that the name of the defendant previous to said marriage was Minnie Dean.

And your orator further shows unto the court, that after said marriage your orator and said defendant lived and cohabited together as husband and wife for about three weeks thereafter, when said defendant on the - day of July, 1898, wilfully, and without any reasonable or just cause therefor, deserts and abandons your orator, and your orator further alleges and charges that said defendant, at the time aforesaid left the State of Virginia, with one Henry Bowman for parts unknown to your orator, ^{and that the defendant committed adultery with Henry Bowman, in} and from the time aforesaid to the present day, (for a period of about 8 years) your orator has never seen or heard of the whereabouts residence shortly before she left the state taken and shown at a day after near plaintiff

of said Defendant.

And your orator avers that the acts done and the cause of divorce charged in this bill, for which divorce is sought, were done without the consent, connivance, privity, or procurement of your orator, and that this bill is not grounded on, or exhibits in consequence of any collusion, agreement, or understanding whatever between the parties thereto, or between your orator and any other person.

Forasmuch, therefore, as your orator is without remedy in the premises, except in a court of equity and the said Defendant having been made party Defendant thereto by due process of law, the prayer of your orator is that a decree be rendered, for the dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between your orator and this Defendant, and he will ever pray.

James Sargent }
vs } Decree for divorce
Minnie Sargent }

This cause, in which the plaintiff appears to have proceeded against the Defendant by order of Publication, in the mode prescribed by law against absent defendants, and the still failing to appear and answer, came on this day to be heard upon the bill and examinations of witnesses, and was argued by counsel for plaintiff. On consideration whereof, the court bring of its opinion that the charge of adultery against the defendant is fully proved, doth adjudge, order and decree that the marriage heretofore solemnized between James Sargent and Minnie Sargent be, and the same is hereby dissolved, ^{and} the said James Sargent forever divorced from his wife. And the cause is ordered to be stricken from the docket.

The deposition of Margaret Sargent taken before me Geo.P. Ordilin, & Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, on the 7th day of December, at my office in the town of Jonesville, Virginia, which deposition is intended to be read as evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain suit in chancery now pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, in which James Sargent is plaintiff Minnie Sargent is defendant.

Present: W.K.Hopkins, atty for plaintiff.

Margaret Sargent, a witness of lawful age being first duly sworn deposes as follows:

Q.-- What is your age and where do you reside?

A.-- I am 60 years old, and I reside at Pennington Gap, Va.

Q.2.-- Are you acquainted with James Sargent and Minnie Sargent, and if so how long have you known them, and where does the plaintiff live?

A.-- I am acquainted with said parties, and have known them all their lives, James Sargent is my son, and he lives at Pennington Gap, Lee County, Virginia, and he has lived in this County all his life.

Q.3.-- Are the plaintiff and defendant now living together as man and wife, and if not, when did they separate?

A.-- They are not living together now. They separated about seven years ago.

Q.4.-- How long had they been married when they separated, and where did they last reside together.

A.-- They had been married about three months. All the time they lived together they lived at my house on Hardys Creek in this County, and they last resided together there.

Q.5.-- You have stated that they are not living together now, please state why they are not if you, know, where the defendant now is, and the circumstances attending her leaving her husband's home.

A.-- The plaintiff and the defendant resided together at my house as I have stated above, and at one time the plaintiff went to Kentucky for a few days on a trading trip, one night while he was away, I got up from my bed and found that the defendant had gotten out of the bed near mine in which she had been sleeping and I found her in another bed with a man, I made them get out of the house. She came back the next day and begged me to let her come back and promised to do better if I would. She also begged me not to tell her husband of her misconduct. I agreed to let her come back, and I did not tell her husband of the matter, because I knew it would create trouble and disgrace. A short time later my son again went to Kentucky for ^{one night} a few days, and five men came to my house and she went away with them to some hay stacks near by and there satyed all night with them. Henry Bowman, Tim Speaks and Bird Gobble were three of these men, I don't remember the names of the other two men. She again begged me to say nothing of this, and I again agreed to do so by her promising to do better in the future. When her husband came home, some one told him something about it, and he came and asked her about it, accusing her of being guilty of adultery with these men, and she admitted the facts to him, and he then told her that he would not live with her longer. She then left my house, and I was informed soon afterwards left the state with the said Henry Bowman. Henry Bowman was a negro. I have never seen the defendant since that time but have been informed that she lives somewhere in Kentucky.

Q.6.-- Please state if you know if the plaintiff connived ^{at} or in any way consented to or procured the commission of the ~~xxx~~ guilty acts by the defendant?

A.-- He had no knowledge of it until the time I have stated above when he asked his wife about it, and nothing of that sort was done with his knowledge or consent. He was good to the defendant up to that time and provided for her all that she needed.

And further this deponent saith not. ^{her}
